

I listen to satellite radio in my vehicle on a daily basis as I do my work as an insurance agent. I use the satellite radio local traffic reports for Baltimore and for D.C. to help me make my appointments on time. I find that the traffic reports are better than the broadcast stations' reports and they are more readily available. I oppose any effort to halt the satellite radio local traffic reports. David Mason